

WHAT THE EXPOSURE OF BERIA MEANS

"In the shock and surprise of events, let us not be deceived by the suspicious excitement of the Dulleses in Washington who hope by their secret agents to halt the vast tides of modern history making for negotiations and peace."

"As for our country, it is obvious that our interest lies not with the war-hungry speculations of the Dulleses and McCarthys, not with the militarists seeking limitless billions for limitless armaments on the basis of their "Russians-are-attacking" or the "Russians-are-crumbling" hoaxes which alternate with each other."
